A Note from our President.

We have finally reached the day when we can be together to kick off the 2011 camping season by going to one of my favorite places to camp. We are certainly looking forward to seeing all of you again. We hope that Dick Flanery and Jim Biggs are doing well and that we will see them there. We hope that everyone is well and ready to start the new season. Everyone I've spoken to is as excited as we are.

We have changed the menu for this Rally. We are having pulled pork, scalloped potatoes, and baked beans.

Hope this doesn't throw off anyone's plans.

Bob Oaks

RALLIES

Don't forget the Glass Rally on May 27-31 at Berrien Springs, MI; Make plans to attend.

If you have any questions about next year rallies, call Chuck Bracken (513-218-0278).

Condolence

Our deepest sympathy to Jim Marker and family for the passing of Jim's mother on April 16, she was 93 years young.

From: Bob and Barb Daniels

We want to thank everyone for the prayers, e-mails, cards and phone calls. It was really appreciated during Bob's period of recovery from his stroke. We look forward to seeing everyone this summer.

Roger and I are so excited about starting another "camping season". While attending the International Rally at Perry, Ga. in March, we were lucky to spend time with all the Tri- State Traveliers there. What a great location for the rally. Be sure to mark your calendars for the International Rally scheduled now for August 10 through 14th 2012 at Indianapolis IN. Again we will be volunteering doing the seminars at that rally next year. I'll talk about this at Natural Springs this weekend and will be keeping you all up to date through the up coming news letter. See you soon.
